

Providing for the Development of the Rice and Corn Industry and Creating for This Purpose the National Grain Authority

Presidential Decree No. 4

President of the Philippines

26 September 1972

National Grains Industry Development Act

WHEREAS, there were pending before the Congress prior to the promulgation of Proclamation No. 1081, dated September 21, 1972, certain priority measures vital to the national development program of the Government, and which were duly certified by the President as urgent measures.

WHEREAS, one of the priority measures is the proposed bill entitled “An Act to Develop the Rice and Corn Industry, Create the National Grain Authority and Provide Funds Therefor.”

WHEREAS, the rice and corn industry has not been fully harnessed for the economy of the country nor has it been the object of a truly integrated development, planning, programming and implementation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FERDINAND E. MARCOS, by virtue of the powers vested in me by the Constitution as Commander-in-Chief of all the Armed Forces of the Philippines, and pursuant to Proclamation No. 1081, dated September 21, 1972 and General Order No. 1 dated September 22, 1972, as amended, in order to effect desired changes and reforms in the social, economic and political structure of our society, do hereby decree that the “Act to Develop the Rice and Corn Industry, Create National Grain Authority and Provide Funds Therefor” as hereto attached is hereby adopted, and approved and made as part of the law of the land.

Changes and modifications in the said “Act to Develop the Rice and Corn Industry, Create the National Grain Authority and Provide Funds Therefor” shall be made from time to time, as necessity requires, to be correspondingly announced by me or by my duly authorized representative.

This decree shall take effect immediately.

All concerned shall act accordingly.
